

WYCK HILL HOUSE HOTEL and SPA, 4-Star Country House Hotel, Nr STOW-on-the-WOLD, Gloucestershire

FRIDAY 18th to MONDAY 21st OCTOBER 2019

A Cotswold Weekend of Countryside, History and Technology

This delightful hotel is located just outside the attractive Cotswold town of Stow-on-the-Wold. There is ample parking around the hotel in the secluded grounds and in front of the hotel. Throughout the stay we will also have free access to the hotel Spa (no swimming pool). The bedrooms are very large and comfortable, and the dining areas have lovely views over the gardens & countryside.

The Cotswolds contain many idyllic beautiful villages and small towns – Burford, Chipping Camden, Bibury, Lower Slaughter, Broadway to name just a few. And you will never be far from good food or a cream tea!

On Friday, as you make your way to the hotel, why not stop off in Burford for a stroll down the picture postcard high street and have a bite in one of the historic eateries.

On Saturday after a leisurely breakfast, we will hit the road to visit The Bugatti Collection (Museum) which includes a welcome cuppa and a short talk on the history of Bugatti. After lunch we can head for the Jet Age Museum near Gloucester. This museum contains a range of aircraft, engines and restoration work, celebrating such famous aircraft as the Gloster Javelin, Meteor and Gladiator. Gloucester Cathedral is also worth a visit.

On Sunday morning we propose a steam train ride along the Gloucester and Warwickshire Steam Railway to Winchcombe. From the station recommended is a visit to Sudeley Castle, one of the area's top attractions, with beautiful surrounding gardens and even a rare bird sanctuary. The 15th church in the grounds contains the tomb of Katherine Parr – the last of Henry VIII's six wives. We can have lunch in the Castle Café or Restaurant. Then back on the train to complete the full round trip back to Broadway (or you will be able to choose your own itinerary with an open ticket). Over the weekend there is the Cotswold Food and Drink Fayre centred on Toddington and Winchcombe stations to enjoy as well.

After breakfast on Monday, our last day, a suggested route to the M4 will take you through villages such as Bibury to WW2 era Kemble Airfield (Cotswold Airport). Here, on the edge of the Cotswolds, you can see commercial aircraft from around the world in various states of 'deconstruction' for spares. Boeing 747s, 727s, DC9s as well as Airbus etc can be viewed at close quarter. There is the very good AV8 café next to the runway and control tower to fortify yourself for the rest of your journey!

Don't forget your National Trust Membership cards as there are Hidcote Gardens and Snowhill Manor to visit during your weekend too if you wish.

Throughout our 3 night stay, we will dine in our own private dining room to enjoy a meal from the wide 3-course menu, and to swap stories from the day.

Early booking is advised as we are limited to 32 people, and the Cotswolds remain a very popular destination all year round.

Places will only be reserved when payment received!
