

With the men away fighting, women had an important role in the wartime factories.

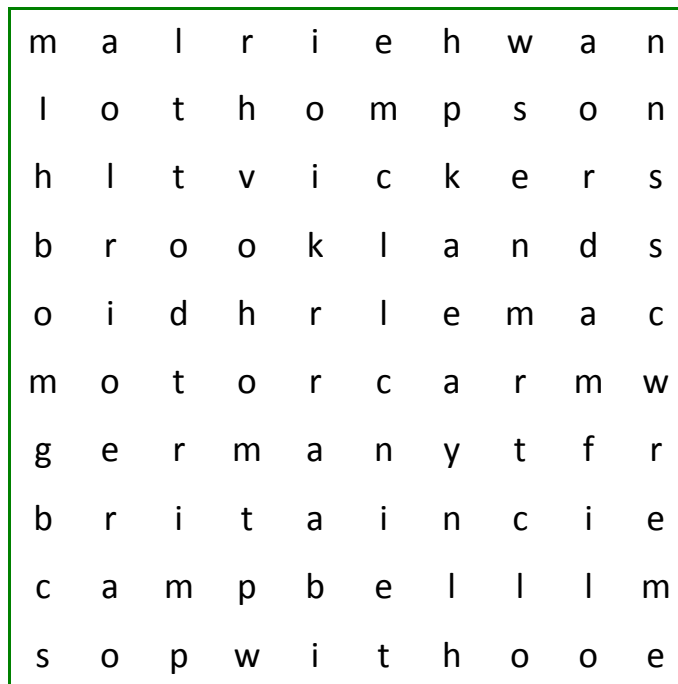

Name any of the aircraft manufacturers at Brooklands where women worked during the war

Make sure you visit the Ladies' Reading Room in the Clubhouse, no. 7 on the Museum trail guide

What is this racing driver's name? She was an ambulance driver during the war and was the first female race winner at Brooklands.

Can you find the answers to this trail and other World War One words in the wordsearch below?

britain
brooklands
camel campbell
germany

motorcar motorcycle
sopwith
thompson
vickers

Thank you for completing this trail.
Can you find any other World War One things in the Museum?

BROOKLANDS
MUSEUM

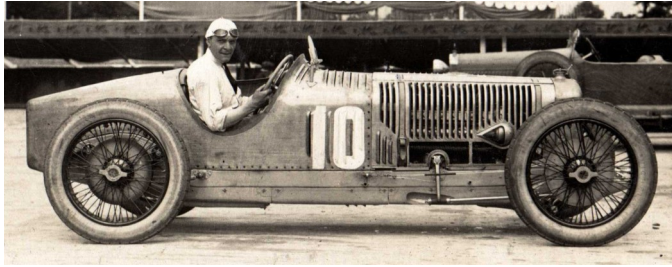

BROOKLANDS & WORLD WAR ONE

We are commemorating 100 years since World War One. Follow this trail to find out more about Brooklands and the war.

For children aged 7 – 11.

Head to the Jackson shed, no. 5 on the Museum trail guide

You can see our Delage in this shed. Who drove the Delage in the 1927 British Grand Prix after serving in the French Infantry and Air Force during the war?

Find the Campbell shed, no. 2 on the Museum trail guide

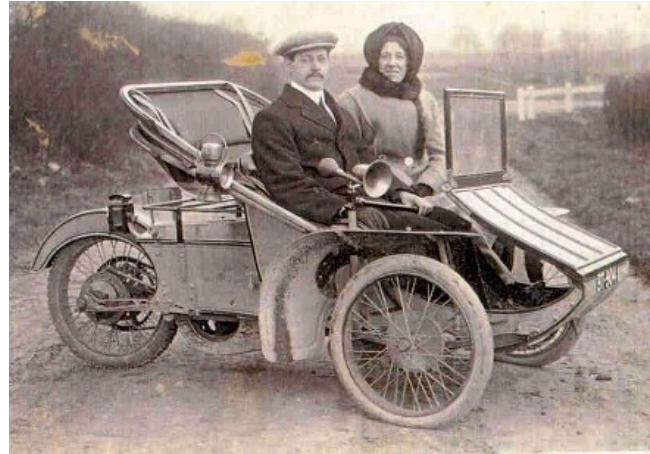

Many racing drivers served their countries during the war

Captain Arthur Waite served at Gallipoli, with the Australian Infantry. His trophy is on display here. What was it awarded for?

Circle the right answer

- A. BARC Short Handicap Trophy
- B. BARC Easter 1923 Trophy
- C. BARC 1912 Trophy

Go next door to the ERA shed, no. 3 on the Museum trail guide

Find this three-wheeled vehicle used as a machine gun carrier and name it below.

Can you guess which two-wheeled vehicles were used by soldiers to deliver messages in the war?

Tick the right answer

- ☐ Tank
- ☐ Car
- ☐ Motorcycle

Make your way to the flight shed, no. 13 on the Museum trail guide

Can you find the name of this Brooklands aircraft that challenged the Red Baron?

Brooklands had its own flying school and this is a ticket for a flying lesson. Can you draw your own ticket for the flying school below?

